

WHAT WE OFFER

Porch Light Health offers medically-focused, medications for addiction treatment (MAT) and clinical case management treatment for Opioid, Alcohol, Stimulant, Sedative, Nicotine, Cannabis and Polysubstance Use Disorders.

We are an urgent care focused statewide network of addiction medicine clinics, dedicated to reducing harm, improving quality of life, and supporting patient defined recovery.

Our comprehensive MAT services include: addiction medicine, psychiatry, behavioral health counseling, ambulatory medically supervised withdrawal services, infectious disease treatment, toxicology (lab), and grant supported care.

Medications for Addiction Treatment, or MAT, is a way to treat and manage alcohol and opiate addiction.

- MAT improves patient survival and increases retention in treatment
- MAT decreases illicit opiate use and other criminal activity among people with substance use disorders
- MAT increases patients' ability to gain and maintain employment
- MAT improves birth outcomes among women who have substance use disorders

FAQ's

Are you accepting new patients?

Yes. All of our clinics are accepting new patients. Individuals are not turned away.

What insurance do you accept?

We accept Colorado & New Mexico Medicaid, Medicare, United Health Care, and Cigna. We offer affordable private pay options and a sliding fee scale.

Does the cost of the appointment include medication?

No. However, most insurances cover the cost of MAT medications. Our staff can assist with the process of getting medication.

Will you tell my loved one about my treatment?

There are multiple laws that protect your privacy. No information will be shared unless you give written permission.

ABOUT US

We get how hard it is to find long-term recovery from addiction. We know that it can be intimidating to make that first call and even harder to go to the first appointment.

We know you are worth it.

Our patients are people first. At Porch Light Health, our number one goal is making sure our patients receive individualized and thoughtful care. Treating addiction is not always easy, but we work hard to remove obstacles.

All of our clinics are judgement-free zones with compassionate staff, and dedicated medical providers.
